Cotton.—Up to Friday morning last, November 5th, the merchants of Liberty had purchased 1208 bales of cotton, against 725 for the same time last year.

A few days ago one of Mr. A. J. Whittington's milch cows was found to be badly wounded by a pistol shot in the side. If people must indulge in pistol practice we cannot see why they do not select some other target.

Mr. Dave Rattray gave a musical and humorous entertainment at the school house on Thursday night, which was a decided success. All present were enthusiastic in praise of his performance. He will give another entertainment at the same place to-night. Do not fail to be on hand.—Admission 25 cents.

The election on Tuesday passed off quietly. There was no pulling and hauling for colored votes. Just about night, however, a misunderstanding occurred between some of the white boys, and at it they went in Heenan style. No pistols or knives were used. Result, some scratches, bruises, &c. The boys all made friends, went before the Mayor and contributed liberally to the school fund.

At LIGON'S CHEAP STORE—2800 yards of calico at 5 cents per yard. Coats thread at 5 cents per spool. Men's pants (good) at 75 cents and up. Men's boots at $2.50.—One lot men's spurs at $1 per pair. One lot women's heavy shoes at $1 per pair. Good chairs at 75 cents each. Sards at 15 cents per box. Everything else at proportion. Call early, while stock is fresh.

One day last week, during a thunder storm, Mr. T. J. Berryhill had a fine cow and an ox killed by lightning in the following strange manner: On the road side stood a gum tree near a field fence, and in the field directly under the tree was the cow, while the ox was in the road on the outside of the fence, about six feet from where the cow was standing. Both animals were instantly killed, but it is strange to say, the tree, though they were so very near it, was left untouched. Another cow about a mile distant on the same road, was killed by lightning on the same day.

THE ELECTION.—The following is the result of the election in this county.
Liberty—Hancock 191, Garfield 99—Democratic majority 92.
Zion Hill—89 votes cast, all Democratic.
Tolers—Hancock 45, Garfield 32—Democratic majority 13.
Thickwoods—Hancock 70, Garfield none.
Talberts—Hancock 152, Garfield 37—Democratic majority 115.
O'Neal—Hancock 41, Garfield 6—Democratic majority 35.
Smith's—Hancock 73, Garfield 63—Democratic majority 10.
Spartanburg—Hancock 72, Garfield 20—Democratic majority 52.
Tickfaw—Hancock 40, Garfield 16—Democratic majority 24.
Walls—Hancock 90, Garfield 31—Democratic majority 59.
Total—Hancock 863, Garfield 304—Democratic majority 559.
For Congress—Hooker's total vote was 864, Drason 303, and Osborn 2. Hooker's majority over both 559.

Religious Services.
There will be, during the year 1880, divine service regularly in the following churches:
Unity—Second Sabbath of every month.

Cotton Drug.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

A report is in circulation among our planting friends in this country, purporting to be a statement as to the business of this place, relative to the formation of what is termed a "Cotton Ring," the object being a combination of all cotton buyers, with one exception, so that, to purchase at the lowest prices, and without giving the planter the benefit of competition of bidders on this article—one such report is in circulation. We are sorry to say that the above report is not true, but we do deny the formation of any such ring, and assert that it is without the slightest foundation in truth. The merchants who are purchasing cotton have been giving a liberal price for it from the introduction of the first bale of this season up to the present time, and it is a fact, susceptible of demonstration by figures, that for the last few weeks the cotton prices paid here approximate the New Orleans prices nearer than did the early purchases, and were made at only three quarters of a cent below that of New Orleans, the greatest cotton mart in the South, and really is the great cotton center. The report of the formation of a cotton ring in Liberty is preposterous, and that the merchants here are very great injustice. Up to the present time we have not heard a word of complaint, and it is to be regretted that any one, especially a citizen of our country or town, should so far forget his individual, as well as the public interest, as to try to create a prejudice in the minds of farmers against merchants, or any number of them. We are glad to be able to say that all the cotton buyers of this town (with one exception) unhesitatingly deny the existence of any ring or organization having for its object the purchasing of cotton at figures below what the New Orleans market would justify. We are to-day, have been, and expect to continue to give the highest prices for cotton that we possibly can, as the article will bear, and pledge ourselves to sell goods, wares or merchandise for cotton or cash as cheap as they can be sold in any market of the South where a legitimate business is carried on, and no other kind will we ever engage in or give countenance to. It is a lamentable fact that the cotton buyers of this place have, up to date, paid such high prices for that article that they have lost three or four thousand dollars on the sale of it, yet they propose no change in their mode of business, but in the future as in the past will continue to purchase all the cotton offered in this market at the highest bids. Then come in, gentlemen, farmers and friends, one and all, and we will prove to you that there is an active competition among us for the purchase of your cotton, and in the sale of such goods as you may desire to purchase, which will enable you to obtain the full value of your cotton and the purchase of goods upon the most reasonable terms, thus conferring the pleasant business relation between us as it has been in the past.

A Card to the Public.

WHEN I FIRST OPENED my business here in Liberty, I determined to sell goods as low as possible for cash, and may all that cotton was worth, taking a bale of cotton as just that much cash, giving goods or money in return. That I met with opposition from other dealers you all know. I am now conducting my business on just the same principle—giving goods at living rates and paying every cent that cotton is worth. If I can undersell my neighbors I shall certainly do so. If I cannot pay more for cotton than they, why, it's Ligon's money. I am under no obligation to any of them, nor do I intend to be. I belong to no ring for the purpose of fixing the price of goods of cotton. My state is independent, and belongs to Ligon. I am very thankful for the generous patronage received in the past, and will do all in my power to merit a continuance of the same. Try me.
Yours, truly, W. O. LIGON.

GUNST BROTHERS,
CENTREVILLE, MISS.
THE ALMIGHTY DOLLAR!
THE MANY HAVE TOO FEW, AND THE FEW TOO MANY!

Our New Departure—Our Platform:

We have the pleasure to announce the locating of a Branch Store in Centreville, for the purpose of supplying the wants of the public in general.

NOT BY FAVOR
but by merit alone will we maintain and increase our reputation.

BIG PRICES will not do in these times, when even the WEALTHY can not afford to waste their MONEY, and the POOR require double duty of EVERY DOLLAR AND EVERY PENNY.

OUR STOCK has been carefully selected by one of the firm, and purchased direct from first hands in the different northern markets. His long past experience is a guarantee that the wants and desires of the community have been thoroughly attended to, both as to QUALITY OF GOODS AND PRICES, believing as we do that the Public will Patronize the House that Sells the Best Goods for the Least Money.

WE ARE NOT GUIDED by the views of any other merchant, or the price in any other city.

Old Time Views, Old Time Practices and Old Time Prices are to us as things of the past. New Advanced Ideas crowd out the old. PLUCK, INSTEAD OF LUCK, SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK SALES. Brains in the place of Cheek, and SCIENCE instead of ABILITY beating back into oblivion these old time merchants with their tough and treacherous old time profits.

OUR STOCK WILL BE COMPLETE in every line; we intend keeping every thing that can possibly be called for.

PURCHASING AS LARGELY as we do, direct from headquarters in every line, we save the profit of the MIDDLE MAN, and intend to distribute this profit to the BENEFIT OF OUR PATRONS.

WHAT IS THE USE of wasting a dollar when you can save it? Hence we throw out amongst the people these SPECIALTIES: Our Matchless Goods and Matchless Prices.

WE WANT THE TRADE
we mean to do the business, for if there is honor in man or virtue in good goods AT LOW PRICES, we mean to be masters of the situation.

WE SHALL OFFER
FACTS that will level your head on the subject of GENUINE BARGAINS

THIS IS THE MUSIC and these the prices that will cause

Our Store
to be crowd-d, while other merchants, who pay big prices and sell at figures that no people can afford to pay, will sleep on their counters

WE INVITE AN EARLY AND REPEATED VISIT AND INSPECTION.
NO TROUBLE TO SHOW GOODS, AS WE CONSIDER IT OUR DUTY TO DO SO.
